

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 20.

VISITORS AT THE CENTENNIAL.—Very many of the visitors who came in on early morning trains from the outlying towns waited first in the city to get through with their shopping, and then, with bundles in hand, repaired to the Centennial grounds. Custom-house officers are stationed at every door of the Exhibition buildings to see that no dutiable articles are carried away; and as those visitors with packages entered unmolested they were, of course, somewhat indignant at being stopped at the attempts to get out of the buildings, and told that their bundles must be examined. Most of the officers possessed sufficient politeness to do this in a way that should not give offence and judgment enough to tell an Eighth-street dry goods package from a bundle of imported goods; but a few were less considerate, and the parties thus peremptorily challenged were naturally inclined to resist such interference.—Phila. North American.

Hon. Robert Toombs.
Dr. J. S. Pemberton.—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in giving my testimony to the virtues of your excellent Globe Flower Syrup, having used several bottles myself for an obstinate affection of the throat and voice, with most happy results. It is certainly the most remedial I have ever used, and quite pleasant to the taste.
Yours truly,
ROBERT TOOMBS.

Globe Flower Syrup cures Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Pleurisy, Pain and Soreness in the Breast, and will positively cure Consumption. We shall publish in the Gazette Testimonials of great and good men of the nation, whose words cannot be doubted, in regard to the merits of Globe Flower Syrup. We prefer to let them speak.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER will soon celebrate its centennial year. More than three quarters of a century ago it grew into a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia.

During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. When they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of journalism. Every year NEW FEATURES will be added.

THE GAZETTE MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superlatives only lopped away, of all the current news of the world.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of Virginia.

Special attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, especially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of special interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bills of local interest will be given.

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the people.

In its Commercial columns the special feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Gazette.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Groceries and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. Never before did it pay so well to tell the public what is for sale.
